--	---	--	--

All import customs documents need to be filled out in Russian and will be supplied by the destination agent when the customer arrives in Russia. The customer does not need to have the customs documents at origin.

NB: the application for import from the Embassy or the Employer and the Notarized Power of Attorney (non-diplomatic customers only) must specify the following information:

- Airway bill number;
- Shipment weight;
- Number of pieces;

With this in mind, the customer has to be in Moscow when his or her shipment is flown into Russia. As soon as the airway bill is issued, it should be sent to the destination agent by fax. We will then forward the necessary information to the customer so he or she can prepare the application for import and sign the notarized power of attorney.

Consignment Instructions:

Sender:

Shipper? Name

c/o Moving Company

Consignee:

Shipper? Name

Shipper? Address in Moscow

Notify party: the destination agent (telephone number)

In case of non-diplomatic shipments qualifying for duty-free import, the sending agent needs to adhere to the above consignment instructions without fail. Russian customs will not allow the duty-free import of the customer? shipment if the customer is not declared as the sender and the consignee in the AWB.

(III) IMPORT DUTY

First 200 kg of chargeable weight	4.00 Euro per kg Subtotal is exempt from Russian VAT.
Remaining Weight	The import duty rate varies between 1 and 2 Euro per kg depending on the contents of the shipment. Subtotal is subject to Russian VAT (20%).

Import duty estimate: in order to estimate import duty amount, the Moscow office needs to receive a copy of the shipment inventory and know the exact shipment weight.

Payment method: the destination agent can prepay the import duty on the customer? behalf in most cases. The booking agent needs to confirm the party responsible for the import duty prior to final delivery.

(IV) ARTWORK REGISTRATION

Certain items are classed as "items of cultural value" by Russian customs and are necessary to register for import. These items include:

- Paintings;
- Hand-made carpets;
- Musical instruments (except for electrical ones);
- Samovars (except for electrical ones);
- Icons;
- Collectibles (stamps, postcards, coins etc.);
- Any items over 50 years old.

In order to register the customer? artwork, the destination agent requires two color photographs of each item and a list specifying the following information:

- Item name and description;
- Date and place of manufacture;
- Date and place of purchase;
- Dimensions (paintings and carpets only).

The above documentation needs to be sent to the destination agent before the shipment arrives in Russia. If the customer has such items, they should consult with the destination agent to ensure documentation is completed correctly.

(V) MOTOR VEHICLES

Diplomats may import a vehicle duty free. Non-diplomats must pay import duties when importing a vehicle. For specific requirements regarding importation of vehicles, please contact the destination agent office.

TD-10 Customs Form

IMPORTANT:

TD-10 form needs to be completed by all non-diplomatic customers.

A separate TD-10 customs form has to be filled out prior to the customer's arrival in Russia.

When passing Russian customs at the airport, the customer has to proceed to RED CHANNEL. The customer needs to ask the Russian Customs officer to sign and stamp the TD-10 form.

Customer must have a copy of the shipment inventory handy when he or she passes the Russian customs checkpoint at the airport of entry. Russian customs can ask to see the shipment inventory before approving the customs TD-10 form.
